

TOTE: A Teachers on the Estuary training with South Slough Reserve

FINDING FISH!

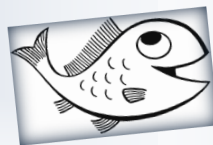

January 26,
February 23,
& March 23

Spend winter Fridays immersed in science! South Slough is offering a unique workshop open to K-12 classroom or preservice teachers, and informal educators.

Training will enhance teachers' abilities to:

- engage students in data-driven science
- connect global issues to local bays
- apply three-dimensional teaching techniques

Participating teachers will receive:

- $240 stipend
- field trip and supply funds
- sample lessons and resources
- lunch during work day
- some housing will be available

Register online: <https://finding-fish.eventbrite.com>
Cost: $35
Deadline to register is January 19, 2018!

South Slough National Estuarine Reserve is located in Charleston, OR Contact: 541-888-5558 x 127 or jaime.c.belanger@state.or.us

