Using Oregon's Sustainable Fisheries*

Hatfield Marine Science Center in Newport, OR

Join us as we engage with the fishing community, researchers, and natural resource managers to explore the complex issues surrounding Oregon's fisheries. This 4-day workshop will include field-based and classroom activities such as data collection, dock walks, engineering challenges, lab tours, fish printing, and seafood sampling. Most meals are provided. Housing is available for participants traveling more than 50 miles from Newport. Boots and rain gear are recommended each day.

Cost: $50 | Register at <http://tinyurl.com/FindingTheHook>

All participants will receive a $200 stipend upon completion of the workshop!
