

Name_____

Score_____/20

Period_____

Carbon Footprint Poster Rubric

	4	3	2	1
Title/Format	The whole poster is legible. There is a title along with all group members listed.	The poster is hard to read in some places BUT there is a title and group members are listed.	The poster is hard to read in some places OR the title or group members are not listed.	The poster is/almost illegible. The title and/or group members are not listed.
Data	The population and sample are written. All 20 data points are listed.	The population OR sample is missing but all 20 data points are listed.	The population AND sample are missing but all 20 data points are listed.	Data points are not listed.
Plot	The number line is drawn and labeled along with any other key points on the plot. The plot accurately reflects the data.	The number line is drawn and labeled along with any other key points on the plot. The plot incorrectly labeled 2 or less points.	The number line is drawn but nothing is labeled. The plot incorrectly labeled 3 or less points.	The plot does not accurately represent the data and is not appropriately labeled.
Averages	The mean and median are listed.	The mean and median are listed BUT one of them is inaccurate.	Only the mean OR median is accurately listed.	Neither the mean or median are accurately listed.
Conclusion	There is at least a two-sentence conclusion that answers the question "What is the average carbon footprint of a 7th grader at NMS?". It is supported with evidence drawn from plot or data points.	There is at least a two-sentence conclusion that answers the question "What is the average carbon footprint of a 7th grader at NMS?". It is supported with evidence drawn from plot or data points.	There is at least a two-sentence conclusion that answers the question "What is the average carbon footprint of a 7th grader at NMS?". It is not supported with evidence drawn from plot or data points.	There is not at least a two-sentence conclusion that answers the question "What is the average carbon footprint of a 7th grader at NMS?". It is not supported with evidence drawn from plot or data points.

Name_____

Score_____/10

Period_____

Carbon Footprint Poster Rubric

1. Which parts of the poster did you complete?

2. Were you on task throughout the whole project?

3. Which part of this project did you find the hardest?

4. Did the result surprise you?