

Rockfish One-Pager

OVERVIEW and INSTRUCTIONS

This One-Pager will be a creative response to your learning about your rockfish species. It will help you, your peers, and your teacher make connections and think creatively about the rockfish species that you are specializing in.

Use the following format for your One-Pager:

Use plain white paper.

The title should be clear and help others know what your one pager is about.

Use color and fill the entire page.

Arrange your one pager in a thoughtful way. What are your reasons for each part of your one pager?

Write two quotations from the research about your species, using correct format.

Use three visual graphics that help others learn about your species. If you use a computer image, personalize it and give credit.

Place at least five important vocabulary words/phrases around your images. These terms/words/phrases should express the main ideas about what you have learned about your species.

Write at least three main ideas about your species.

Put a symbolic colored border around the edges of the page.

Write your name clearly in one of the corners.
